SGA Take Steps to Adopt New Constitution

The Constitutional Revision Committee of the Student Government Association has completed its work and is now awaiting full approval of the SGA Board. The SGA met on April 2, at which time the board began its reading of the proposed constitution. The president, Dick Murphy, suggested that each article be read orally and a motion then be made for its acceptance.

The first article, the preamble, was passed with a dissenting vote of one, the minority reporting upon a request from one member of the board, that the SGA was "hamstrung," that is, the SGA was rendered useless.

The second article, dealing with membership, was passed unanimously. At this point, a motion was made and seconded that a vote be taken on the remaining articles without oral reading. The chair objected but the body upheld the motion and the meeting proceeded without further oral reading.

After the discussion on the third article, dealing with the SGA Board, its composition and power, it was realized that a legal vote could not be taken because a quorum was no longer present. The president, therefore, announced that the board would adjourn and continue its deliberations at the next SGA meeting on Tuesday, April 16.

Three Movies Will Be Shown on Campus

The Cultural Affairs Committee is presenting three outstanding motion pictures within the next five weeks.

The selection of movies was made by Mr. James Di Virgilio and three students, who aimed at securing movies with a high level of entertainment and a quality of popular appeal.

The three technicolor pictures which will be presented are Brigadoon, Quo Vadis, and The Student Prince. They are to be shown on the evenings of April 29, May 7, and May 15 respectively.

There will be no admission, but the movies will be restricted to members of the faculty and student body. The schedule of presentation is subject to change, pending approval of the movie companies. However, notices of possible changes will be made public.

Annual May Day Dance Planned for May 3

The annual May Day Dance will be held in the college gymnasium Friday, May 3, at 9:00 P.M. A semi-formal dance, it is being sponsored this year by the Day Association.

As a theme, the group has chosen the lovely natural setting of a southern garden. The Lynn Engh Quintet will provide music throughout the evening.

Acting as co-chairmen of the dance are Suzanne Metz, Carol Knapp, and Sheldon Larmore. Committee chairmen are: refreshments — Mrs. Anna Jones Duffy; decoration — Mary Frances Balassone; and advertising — Richard Ristaino. Serving as faculty advisors are Mrs. Frances Fleming and Dr. Robert Elderdice.

Faculty, students and their guests are cordially invited to attend the dance.

Theme for STC May Day Program Is Announced

The May Day program this year is arranged on an entirely different approach than any of the other previous years. A theme, "Springtime Moods," has been chosen. A series of dance numbers and an acrobatic routine will represent the moods that come with spring — romance, joy, and gregariousness. There will be folk dances, modern dances, and the traditional May Pole Dance. These dances will be performed by students in the freshman and sophomore physical education classes. A ballroom dance routine with couples will be featured.

The entire program is under the direction of Dr. Alethea Whitney, director of the Women's Physical Education activities

New Recreational Facilities Planned for Student Snack Bar

The Student Activity Center Committee has made many additions to the recreational facilities on campus, and has plans for other improvements. A new ping-pong table has been purchased for the snack bar, in addition to a 25-cup electric coffee maker with a serving tray; a sandwich tray; a paper cutter; and a table size printing press for making posters and printing tickets. Plans for acquiring a television set for the Student Body Elects 1957-58 SGA President

Dr. Wilbur Devilbiss announced the results of the student-wide election for president of the Student Government Association for 1957-58 at the Honors Day Assembly. The newly elected president is Mr. Henry Hausdorff of Salisbury, Maryland.

He succeeded in capturing the election on the second ballot. The first ballot was held on Friday, April 5; the second ballot on Monday, April 8.

Mr. Hausdorff is a graduate of Abraham Lincoln High School in Brooklyn, New York. Enrolled in the Junior High Curriculum, he is primarily interested in teaching

Results of Sophomore Tests Are Available

"The results of the Sophomore testing program will be available to those people who took the tests last month by the first of May," reports Dr. John B. May. The tests were scored by hand by the instructors and these results were sent to the Educational Testing Bureau in New Jersey, where percentiles will be computed from the scores of other schools participating in the testing program across the nation, as well as STC.

The student who has taken the test and wishes to know the results will go to his advisor where he will receive a profile sheet, his scores, and his percentile rank. When he graphs his scores on the profile sheet, he will be able to determine his standing with other sophomores all over the United States.

Annual Easter Assembly Will Be Presented Today

The annual Easter assembly, which is sponsored by the Student Christian Association, will be presented today, April 16, at 10:05 A.M. in the college auditorium. This year's program will constitute a departure from tradition; the customary form, a service or worship, which has formed the pattern for past Easter observances, has been replaced. In place of this, a tableau has been planned.

The inspiring theme will be the descriptive account of the life of Christ as chronicled in the Gospel of Luke. Against the background, a twelfth century Italian altar scene, members of a modern dance group, directed by Dr. Alethea Whitney, will interpret major Scriptural events from the Annunciation to the Resurrection.

The College Chorus, conducted by Dr. Jessie L. Fleming, will contribute two anthems, "Unfold, Ye Portals" by Gounod and the "Alleluia" of Mozart. Mrs. Jane Thorsell West and Mrs. Barbara Post Mumford will be guest soloists. Mrs. West will sing a plain song selection and Mrs. Mumford will sing "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth" and "Open the Gates of the Temple."

Staging is under the direction of John Weise, and William Bailey will manage the lighting effects.

Staff Members Appointed For 1957-58 Evergreen

The final deadline for the 1956-57 edition of the college yearbook, The Evergreen, was met in February, and appointments have been made for the 1957-58 Evergreen staff. To date, this year's staff, with the assistance of the advisor, Dr. John B. May, has appointed the following people for positions on the staff: Editor, Barbara Caine; Photography Editor, Thomas Cropper; Advertising Manager, Charlotte Ralph; and Business Manager, Ruth Nielson.

Mrs. Barbara Butler Caine, the new editor, is a graduate of Greensboro High School in Greensboro, Maryland. Enrolled under the junior high school teaching program, she entered STC in 1954. Previous experience as editor of her high school yearbook, as well as a member of the high school newspaper staff for two years, has prepared her for her present position. She also served as Associate Editor for the 1956-57 edition of

SGA Executive Board Announced For 1957-58

On Thursday, April 11, an election was held for the offices of vice president, secretary, and treasurer of SGA and for the chairmanship of the Social Committee. Nominations for these offices had been made previously, following the Honors Day Assembly on April 9.

The vice president of SGA for 1957-58 is Bill Livingston, a resident of Salisbury. Bill is a member of the junior class and is presently serving as chairman of the Social Committee. Helen Mae Ellis, a freshman, has been elected secretary for the coming year. Helen Mae is from Bishop, Md.

The new treasurer of SGA will be Kenneth Gerlach, a sophomore from Cambridge, Md. J. H. Williams, of Salisbury, is the newly-elected chairman of the Social Committee.

Sophanes Players Will Sponsor a Workshop

This semester, the Sophanes Players will sponsor a workshop, which will be presented in three seminars, instead of a play. This behind-the-scenes presentation of the actual work involved in staging a play is new to its audience. Mr. MacCurdy Burnet, advisor to the Sophanes Players, is working in conjunction with the group in sponsoring this program. A cordial invitation is extended to all students and faculty members. Refreshments will be served.

The second in the series of discussions will be presented on April 24, concerning the responsible roles of the producer, stage manager, and director in the production of a play. A guest speaker is planned for the evening, as well as informal discussions by two members of the Sophanes Players.

The last of the discussion groups, the date of which is pending, will be presented in May. The subject of discussion at this time will be costumes and make-up. Individuals will be made up in the presence of the audience to characterize all types, from the sweet old lady to Frankenstien. A familiar play will also be chosen to costume. The possibilities of resources to which we have access, and those not available will be explored.

The first of this series, held on April 10, concerned set designing and building. Interestingly carried out on a miniature scale, this subject was well-attended; and well-received by the audience. It is hoped that this interest will be displayed throughout the remainder of the series.

CLASS REPRESENTATIVES — In the annual May Day festivities each class is represented by a boy and girl who are chosen by each class in popular election. The representatives serve as attendants in the May Court. This year's representatives are, seated: June Taylor, freshman; Joanne Cathell, junior; Clara Mae Marshall, senior; and Nancy Kline, sophomore. Standing: Thomas Alderson, freshman; Thomas Dorman, junior; Glenwood Evans, senior; and Woodrow Robbins, sophomore.

TWO EASTERS

It has often occurred to the writer that many members of Western Christendom are under the impression that Christian religious customs and practices are universal to the Western ideal. In other words, the Christian culture of the West is predominant.

This, contrary to popular belief, is not so. The date of keeping the Christian feast of Easter is a good example. In 1582, Pope Gregory XIII introduced the calendar which most of the civilized world uses today. Easter, before this time, had been reckoned by the entire Christian church from the old Julian calendar. Because of traditional differences between Christian East and West, the Orthodox Church still clings to the ancient Julian reckoning.

Easter is determined by the spring moon, but since the Julian calendar is longer than the Gregorian, Easter comes later to the Orthodox. The two Easters coincide only about one year in every three. It is interesting to note that this year, Easter will be observed by both the East and West on the same day.

The day on which Easter is kept is not important. The essence of Easter is that great Christian truth, namely the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. The Resurrection of Our Lord can be said to be the cornerstone of Christianity, because as St. Paul said, "If Christ be not Risen, then our faith is in vain."

On Saturday, April 6, Joyce Moore, Carolyn Cramer, Dr. Leila Stevens, and Dr. Wilbur Devilbiss attended the annual spring convention of the Maryland Association of Future Teachers of America held at Reisterstown, Maryland. Dr. Devilbiss participated in a panel discussion with Dr. Frederick G. Livingood of Washington College and Dr. Vernon E. Anderson of the University of Maryland. The topic for discussion was, "What College for Specific Training?"

Ressurection

He prophesied this miracle.
Then from the grave our Saviour
came,
And made immortal Easter Day.

A glorious light abounded,
Its brilliance pierced the core of darkness,
Then shone around the universe
In scripture's holy verse.

Student Government Was Formed in 1925

In 1925-26, when the State Teachers College at Salisbury was begun, the idea of a student council for the college was conceived by Dr. William Holloway, the first president of the college. This student council was designed to strengthen the college and to provide opportunity for civil growth.

Both students and faculty members cooperated in starting this student council. The late Dr. Edna C. Marshall, who was director of teacher education, and Dr. T. J. Caruthers helped a great deal in its organization. The first president was Miss Jessie Wilkins and the first secretary was Miss Edna Holland, who designed the college seal found on the stage curtains in the college auditorium.

At the beginning of the 1944-45 school term, a need was recognized to expand the student council as it existed. Student government organizations of other colleges and universities were investigated. The needs of a student government association on campus at STC were studied, and from this study came the SGA as it functions at present.

From 1946 until the present time, the constitution of the organization was revised only once. This was in 1951. The present SGA has just completed a revision of the SGA constitution.

the Evergreen.

Thomas Cropper graduated from Mercersburg Academy in Pennsylvania and is presently living at Ocean City, Maryland. Tom, who is a day student, served as photography editor for the 1956-57 college annual. He is a sophomore enrolled in the junior high school teaching program.

The advertising manager, Charlotte Ralph, is a resident of Salisbury. She is a graduate of the Raven Hill Academy High School in Pennsylvania. In high school, she served as Photography Editor on the yearbook staff. She was a member of The Holly Leaf staff during her freshman year and this year, she served for a time as advertising manager. Charlotte is a junior and enrolled in the elementary teaching program.

Ruth Nielson, the business manager, comes from Marydel, Maryland and she is a graduate of Greensboro High School. A member of the high school newspaper staff for two years, she was assistant editor of the high school yearbook during her senior year. She was a members of the advertising staff for the Evergreen this year, and she also served as business manager. Ruth is a junior enrolled in the elementary teacher program.

Selected also are art directors, Helen Mae Ellis and Patsy Miller; copy editors, Helen Layman and Joanne Cathell; and assistants, Regina Hughes and George Mills. The staff is rapidly being organized and should be complete in a few weeks.

A Thought Went Up My Mind Today

A thought went up my mind today
That I have had before,
But did not finish, — some way back,
I could not fix the year,

Nor where it went, nor why it
came
The second time to me,
Nor definitely what it was,
Have I are art to say.

But somewhere in my soul, I know
I've met the thing before;
It just reminded me — 'twas all—
And came my way no more.

New Library Will Be Completed This Fall

Completion of the new library at STC is expected by the first of September, 1957. A T-shaped building, it is fairly conventional in style so as to conform to the other campus buildings. There will be seating capacity for 250 persons. Since workability of a library is of utmost importance, it has been given careful consideration in the planning of this library.

The library furniture is to have a modern, natural finish. This light finish will provide for a bright attractive atmosphere conducive to study.

A two-story structure, the edifice will also contain a basement. On the first floor there will be two general reading rooms separated by two rows of stacks. Thus there will be easier access to the stacks than is found in the present library, adding to the workability. A separate reference room and the circulation desk complete the first floor.

Two stairways will lead to the second floor. Again there will be two general reading areas divided by two rows of stacks. In addition this floor will contain a Curriculum Lab, including children's literature; a Conference and Audio-Visual room; an Art and Treasures room; a music room; a typing room; a staff room; and a room for storage.

In the Conference and Audio-Visual room it is planned to have a screen, a projector, and projector table, and a film file along with folding chairs and tables. The Art and Treasures room will contain a bulletin board wall, two large exhibit cases and one museum case. In this room it will be possible to arrange many attractive and informative exhibits. The Music room is planned and it will have two separate listening booths and a larger room. A record player and ear phones will be available in the larger room. The Typing Room, equipped with typewriters, is to be for the use of faculty and students.

The basement is to be used primarily for storage and for the heating installations. Restroom facilities will also be housed in the basement.

Fire And Ice

Some say the world will end in fire,
Some say in ice.
From what I've tasted of desire
I hold with those who favor fire.
But if it had to perish twice,
I think I know enough of hate
To say that for destruction ice
Is also great
And would suffice.

Sport Beat

By Gary White

A few weeks ago I had the pleasure of attending the National Collegiate Gymnastics Championships which were held at the United States Naval Academy. It was sensational. It is something you have to see to appreciate.

Twenty-three of the nation's top college teams were entered in the two-day meet. These performers are the best collegiate gymnasts in the country.

The program consisted of eight events which were the free exercise, side horse, high bar, trampoline, parallel bars, flying rings, and tumbling. After all the events were over, an all-around performer was picked.

All the performers were impressive, but there were a choice few that stood out. Jamile Ashmore of Florida State was one such standout. He would do a handstand with his arms and legs spread. The unbelievable thing was his execution of a double flip. Abie Grossfeld of Illinois, a member of the 1956 Olympic Team, was tremendous on the high bar. At the close of his exercise, he did a flyaway with a full twist, landing on his feet (thank goodness).

The outstanding performer of the day was Armando Vega of Penn State, also a member of the 1956 Olympic Team. He had qualified in practically every event and was especially outstanding on the parallel bars. He would hardly finish one event before he was in another. Needless to say, he was chosen the all-around performer of the day.

Penn State was the winner of the meet with Illinois and Florida State following close behind. It was hard for me to believe that the United States didn't win a medal in gymnastics in the 1956 Olympics.

social studies.

Asked for a statement concerning the election, Mr. Hausdorff stated, "The enthusiasm shown in the recent election was indeed gratifying. We all realize that to achieve our goal of the type of student government we want will require the full cooperation of all. We cannot afford to allow this wave of enthusiasm to die. It must be nurtured and nourished and carried over to next semester when the long, hard road upward will be travelled. The first step on this road will be traversed immediately after Easter vacation when the representatives you have just elected will meet to begin planning next year's work.

Maggsmen Play Baseball Today at Baltimore U.

Nineteen recruits have reported to Coach Benn Maggs and were put on the roster for the coming baseball season. Having two weeks of practice to their credit, the squad is shaping up well.

Leading the pitching staff this year is Charlie Muir, from Oriole. Charlie pitched during his freshman year here and last year was signed with a farm club of the Baltimore Orioles farm system in Florida. Returning to the team again is Tom Dorman from Quantico, another hurler. Tom has had two successful seasons here at STC and appears to be ready for another. The only other veteran pitcher is Tom Comer from Rising Sun. New pitchers signed for the season are Bill Harding and Al Colonna. Bill also plays shortstop.

Two nominees are up for the catching spot, John Mavromatis of Wilmington, Delaware, and Stanley Bozman who comes from Deal Island. John did some catching for the team last year. Stanley, who is making his debut as a catcher, played outfield for two seasons.

Bill Livingston of Salisbury and Dave Wheaton from Darlington are both prospects for first base.

Second base is being sought by Tom Alderson from Chesapeake City and Paul Butler of Cardiff. This is the first season on the STC roster for both of these men.

Wilson Gray of Elliott's Island and Murray Smith of Denton are the candidates for third base.

The remaining infield position, shortstop, is being sought by Woody Robbins of Cambridge and Bill Harding from Preston.

The five remaining players are all recruits for the outfield. These include Tom Fallin of Denton and Jack Messick from Salisbury. Tom did a very fine job at second base last year, but has decided this year to move to the outfield. This is the first season at STC for Jack. Other outfielders are Tom Evans of Salisbury, Ben Wharton of Chesapeake City, and Ken Wilson of Cheriton, Virginia. All three of these men are new to baseball here.

The first game of the season is scheduled for Tuesday, April 16. The Maggsmen will travel to Baltimore and face the University of Baltimore "Bees." Coach Maggs has not revealed the remainder of the schedule.

WAA Announces Plans For Spring Program

Plans are being made by the Women's Athletic Association to sponsor a softball tournament. The managers are Delores Gardner and Norma Pollitt. A tennis tournament will be sponsored in the very near future under the managership of Joanne Cathell.

On Thursday evenings from 7:00 to 8:00, intramural volleyball games are held. All girls are welcome to come out and join in the fun. Those which have participated in this sport are: Joyce Bennett, Joan Cowan, Trudy Leiby, Carolyn Higgins, Niki Moxey, Jo Patterson, Delores Johnson, Dottie Shaw, Jane Harris, Linda Sehman, Janice Pippin, Betty Sexton, Anne Kerns, Frances Wersten, Laurie Hammerman, and Mary Jurceka.

Three Students Receive Local Basketball Ratings

Two freshmen and one junior—Emily Burns, Joyce Bennett, and Louise Holbrook — were rated by three national judges of the Women's Board of Basketball Officials on Wednesday, March 27. Each received local ratings when entitled her to referee basketball anywhere in the State of Maryland.

In order to achieve this rating, they first were required to pass a written examination. Next they refereed half a basketball game each while the judges watched everything they called. This dual test is very strict and usually requires several trials before passing. The judges were Miss Mary Morling Troy, Mrs. Joanne Dubs, and Mrs. Odel Hitchens.

The game refereed by these candidates was interesting, in that a group of Eastern Shore girls challenged a group of Western Shore girls. The members of the Eastern Shore team were Trudy Leiby, Joyce Bennett, Nancy Radcliffe, Ruth Neilson, Norma Lee Trice, Joanne Cathell, and Joan Cowan. The Western Shore team was composed of Lucy Hitt, Mary Wright, Delores Gardner, Dottie Shaw, Sue Magee, Emily Burns, and Louise Holbrook.

The Eastern Shore team defeated the Western Shore team, 30-19.
